

Adverbs

Adverbs modify a verb, an adjective, an adverb, or even a sentence. Adverbs tell about how, when, where, how often, or to what extent something happens.

How	When	Where	How often	To what extent
Angrily	Today	There	Always	Very

Directions: Underline the adverb in each sentence. Then, circle the word that it modifies. The first one is done for you.

1. The jaguar leaped majestically onto the boulder.
2. Mrs. Campbell cheerfully whistled a familiar tune as he walked.
3. The teenagers danced wildly at the pool party.
4. Sammy accidentally wore mismatched socks on the first day of school.
5. The robot randomly started spinning in circles.
6. We raced enthusiastically to the new roller coaster ride.
7. The fluffy pancake flipped perfectly in the air.
8. Sherry answered the riddle cleverly and surprised everyone around.
9. The basketball team will leave tomorrow for the camping trip.
10. The squirrel bravely defended its nut stash in the bushes.
11. The ghost giggled mischievously behind the curtain.
12. The driver waited nervously for the sloth to cross the road.
13. The businessman was extremely focused in making a deal.

