

Demonstrative Adjectives

A demonstrative adjective is a type of determiner that distinguishes one noun from others

Ex) This building

"This": near the speaker, singular

Ex) These buildings

"These": near the speaker, plural

Ex) That island

"That": far from the speaker, singular

Ex) Those islands

"Those": far from the speaker, plural

Directions: Underline the demonstrative adjective, and write in the blank space the noun that it modifies.

1. This book is my favorite to read before bedtime. 1. _____
2. That mountain looks small from here. 2. _____
3. These cookies smell scrumptious! 3. _____
4. Those shoes are too uncomfortable for me. 4. _____
5. I don't recommend that movie to young kids. 5. _____

Directions: Circle the correct demonstrative adjective that fits better with the sentence. Then, underline the noun that it modifies.

6. This/these pencil writes very smoothly.
7. That/those stars are shining brightly in the sky.
8. Don't forget to eat that/these apples when they are ripe.
9. Do you remember this/that aggressive dog across the street?
10. Smell those/these flowers that I picked straight from our garden.

