

Demonstrative Adjectives

Directions: Write the correct demonstrative adjective in the blank spaces below.

1. _____ shirt will wrinkle if you keep squeezing it.
2. Look at _____ beautiful birds in the tree!
3. “See? You’ve broken _____ pencil. What are you going to do?” Sam asked as he gathered the pieces in his hands.
4. Can you bring _____ chair by the corner?
5. _____ clouds look like they’re bringing rain.
6. “The city has protected _____ enormous tree for a decade,” the guide explained.

Directions: Underline the demonstrative adjectives in the sentences below. Then, circle the correct verb that fits with the sentence.

7. That strange noise in the attic give/gives me goosebumps.
8. Under the old temple, these was/were found.
9. This narrow path lead/leads to a hidden waterfall in the woods.
10. That movie make/makes me want to curl up inside my blanket.
11. In the distance, those flashing lights disturb/disturbs the oncoming traffic.
12. That bright red kite soaring high above the park belong/belongs to my brother.
13. Grandma knitted this soft, cozy blanket which keep/keeps me warm on chilly nights.
14. These noisy geese by the pond squawk/squawks loudly every morning.
15. Hanging from the trees, those twinkling lights make/makes the backyard look magical.

Demonstrative Adjectives

Directions: Write the correct demonstrative adjective in the blank spaces below.

1. This/that shirt will wrinkle if you keep squeezing it.
2. Look at those beautiful birds in the tree!
3. "See? You've broken this pencil. What are you going to do?" Sam asked as he gathered the pieces in his hands.
4. Can you bring that chair by the corner?
5. Those clouds look like they're bringing rain.
6. "The city has protected that enormous tree for a decade," the guide explained inside the tour bus.

Directions: Underline the demonstrative adjectives in the sentences below. Then, circle the correct verb that fits with the sentence.

7. That strange noise in the attic give/gives me goosebumps.
8. Under the old temple, these was/were found.
9. This narrow path lead/leads to a hidden waterfall in the woods.
10. That movie make/makes me want to curl up inside my blanket.
11. In the distance, those flashing lights disturb/disturbs the oncoming traffic.
12. That bright red kite soaring high above the park belong/belongs to my brother.
13. Grandma knitted this soft, cozy blanket which keep/keeps me warm on chilly nights.
14. These noisy geese by the pond squawk/squawks loudly every morning.
15. Hanging from the trees, those twinkling lights make/makes the backyard look magical.

