

Proper Adjectives

Proper adjectives are adjectives made from proper nouns (specific names of people, places, or things). Proper adjectives are always capitalized just like proper nouns.

ex) America [proper noun] .....➔ American [proper adjective]

Directions: Create the proper adjective derived from the proper nouns given below.

- |                 |          |
|-----------------|----------|
| 1. England      | 1. _____ |
| 2. Europe       | 2. _____ |
| 3. Japan        | 3. _____ |
| 4. South Africa | 4. _____ |
| 5. Russia       | 5. _____ |
| 6. France       | 6. _____ |

Directions: Circle the proper adjective and underline the noun it modifies.

7. We had authentic Italian pasta for dinner, and it was absolutely delicious.
8. Ronaldo is one of the most famous Brazilian soccer players of all time.
9. I am a big fan of Shakespearean drama and quotes lines from Hamlet.
10. The goal of the Christian ministry is to share their faith with others.
11. The trending Kardashian beauty routine mostly consisted of skincare and makeup.
12. The Nike hoodie came out just last week.
13. Beethovenian piece became influential among the aristocracy in Vienna.
14. Mrs. Cambridge starts her day with a Starbucks drink.