

Superlative Adverbs

Superlative adverbs show that something is done to the greatest or highest degree when compared to three or more actions/people.

For short adverbs, add “~est”. For long adverbs, add “most/least”.

Directions: Fill in the blank with a superlative adverb that appropriately fits the sentence. Don't use the same superlative adverb more than once. You may use the dictionary.

1. Of the group, Maya laughed loudest at the repetitive joke.
2. Sam prepared least thoroughly for the poetry presentation.
3. The hare traveled farthest to attend spring festival.
4. The volunteers arrived earliest to help set up.
5. Mrs. Craze reacted most unexpectedly to the news.
6. Dr. Camper spoke most passionately about climate change.
7. Kevin argued most relentlessly about who would win in a fight.
8. The janitor danced least rhythmically at the 6th grade dance.
9. Belly, one of my dogs, barked most suspiciously after I pointed to the mess.
10. Due to the song choice, he danced most awkwardly at the talent show and still won.
11. In my neighborhood, my family visits the donut shop most regularly for their mochi donuts.
12. The active volcano erupted most violently in the early morning.
13. The wind howled most fiercely through the cracks in the cabin.