

Answer sheet

Singular and Plural Nouns

Directions: Circle the noun that correctly fits with the sentence.

1. The chicken/chickens form a union against the farmer.
2. The ghost/ghosts forms a karaoke night and sings off-key.
3. Without caution, the zookeeper/zookeepers has fed the hungry black bear.
4. The robot/robots that looks like a moving fridge was baking cookies.
5. Mischievously, the raccoon/raccoons in the neighborhood rummage through the trash.
6. The enthusiastic toddler/toddlers are painting the walls with spaghetti sauce.
7. The overworked office printer/printers have run out of black ink in no time.

Directions: Write a singular noun or a plural noun that can fit with the sentence. You may not use the same noun more than once. Answers may vary.

8. A child is running through the park, chasing butterflies.
9. A group of artists painted a beautiful mural on the school wall.
10. The thieves have stolen the batch of cookies for the party.
11. To everyone's surprise, a beaver was seen swimming across the deepest lake in America.
12. In the year 3000, drones deliver packages to every rural house.
13. Despite the storm, the adventurers were adamant about hiking the notorious trail.
14. Seabirds are destroying the sandcastle built by the children.
15. The sun has risen behind the mountains.
16. The Tesla engines have malfunctioned during the test.

