

Helping Verbs

Helping verbs "help" the main verb, or the action verb. They come before the main verb

Directions: Circle the correct helping verb that fits the sentence.

1. She is/are conducting a series of experiments to test the hypothesis.
2. He had/have anticipated the challenges but proceeded with determination.
3. My aunt does/do believe that climate change is the most pressing issue of our time
4. We could/did see significant improvements if the team collaborates more effectively.
5. We shall/has overcome these obstacles through innovation and persistence.
6. The ice skating team did/do win the championship last year.
7. They could/should prepare thoroughly for the admissions.
8. Every student in the advanced placement biology class is/are expected to get an A on their lab reports.
9. Neither the CEO nor the board members have/has made a final decision.
10. The series of TV shows has/have been yielding promising results.
11. A bunch of overexcited kids are/is not listening to the announcement.
12. The loud karaoke singers have/has been warming up their voices like a hawk.
13. All the slices was/were eaten before anyone could get a second piece.
14. The students was/were attacked by the raccoon on the loose.
15. The squad of competitive gamers has/have been arguing about the best strategy.