

Prepositions

Prepositions show a relationship between words.
They show direction, location, time, or manner.

Directions: Underline the preposition in each sentence. Then, select what type of preposition it is.

1. I will receive the results in July.

a. time

b. location

c. direction

2. Taylor jumped excitedly onto the bed.

a. manner

b. location

c. direction

3. She played the game in complete silence.

a. manner

b. location

c. direction

4. There was a shivering cat behind the car.

a. time

b. location

c. direction

5. Even though there was a warning, Tommy walked toward the train.

a. time

b. location

c. direction

6. The herd moved reluctantly across the field.

a. time

b. location

c. direction

7. Kevin slept through the entire documentary.

a. time

b. location

c. manner

8. They drove past McDonalds.

a. manner

b. time

c. direction

9. He dashed like an injured buck.

a. manner

b. time

c. direction

Prepositions

Directions: Underline the preposition in each sentence. Then, select what type of preposition it is.

10. Ben devoured the pizza by himself.

a. time

b. manner

c. location

11. The comedian replied with a smirk.

a. manner

b. location

c. time

12. There was a masked man near the bus stop.

a. manner

b. location

c. time

13. A dead mouse was found in the closet.

a. manner

b. location

c. time

14. The words did not go through her head.

a. manner

b. location

c. direction

15. Nobody has seen Nicholas since last week.

a. manner

b. time

c. location

16. Without a word, my mother firmly handed me my report card.

a. manner

b. direction

c. location

17. I must finish the worksheet after the pool party.

a. manner

b. direction

c. time

18. Surprisingly, the chicken flew off the roof.

a. manner

b. direction

c. location

19. There was a treasure box inside the hidden cave.

a. manner

b. direction

c. location

