

Pronouns

Pronouns replace nouns to reduce repetition.

Directions: Write the pronoun that correctly fits the sentence.

1. _____ am practicing how to play guitar.
2. Mrs. Scotsmith loves to bake cookies, and _____ can also make cakes.
3. _____ looks like it's going to be a sunny day today.
4. _____ is my favorite snack of all time.
5. _____ are planning a trip to the The Bahamas next year.
6. _____ is responsible for this mess?
7. Mr. Express usually hates coffee, but _____ decided to take a sip today.
8. "_____ are horrible at this!" Kevin joked around.
9. "I told you that jacket is _____!" I screamed.
10. Dom went on a date with a girl last week. He called _____ two weeks later.
11. "The soda is mine, but the popcorn is _____," said Harry.
12. _____ is the correct route to the highway.
13. _____ was surprising to find leftover pizza in the dishwasher.
14. _____ invited _____ over for a cookout to join our celebration.

Answer sheet

Pronouns

Pronouns replace nouns to reduce repetition.

Directions: Write the pronoun that correctly fits the sentence. Answers may vary

1. I am practicing how to play guitar.
2. Mrs. Scotsmith loves to bake cookies, and she can also make cakes.
3. It looks like it's going to be a sunny day today.
4. This is my favorite snack of all time.
5. We are planning a trip to the The Bahamas next year.
6. Who is responsible for this mess?
7. Mr. Express usually hates coffee, but he decided to take a sip today.
8. "You are horrible at this!" Kevin joked around.
9. "I told you that jacket is mine!" I screamed.
10. Dom went on a date with a girl last week. He called her two weeks later.
11. "The soda is mine, but the popcorn is yours," said Harry.
12. This is the correct route to the highway.
13. It was surprising to find leftover pizza in the dishwasher.
14. We invited them over for a cookout to join our celebration.