

Compound Prepositions

A compound preposition is a group of words that acts as a single unit of a preposition.

Directions: Select the preposition that completes the compound preposition correctly.

1. In front _____

a. of

b. to

c. from

2. On top _____

a. on

b. in

c. of

3. In place _____

a. of

b. to

c. from

4. In addition _____

a. of

b. to

c. with

5. By means _____

a. to

b. from

c. of

Directions: Fill in the blank with a preposition that completes the compound preposition correctly.

6. In reference _____

12. _____ account of

7. With regard _____

13. _____ contrast to

8. With respect _____

14. In line _____

9. In charge _____

15. In relation _____

10. For the sake _____

16. In favor _____

11. _____ spite of

17. In connection _____