

Compound Prepositions

A compound preposition is a group of words that acts as a single unit of a preposition.

Directions: Write a detailed sentence using the compound preposition given below.

1. In between

Answers may vary

The shoe was stuck in between the washer and the wall.

2. As well as

He plays the piano, as well as the trumpet.

3. Along with

The puppy came along with its sibling.

4. On behalf of

For the graduation speech, I spoke on behalf of my fellow classmates.

5. Aside from

Aside from doing the dishes, I enjoy housework.

6. Instead of

I would get a pet tortoise instead of a pet snake.

7. Away from

As I promised, I stayed away from the creepy neighbor.

8. On the left

The bathroom is located on the left.
