

Compound Verbs

A compound verb is a verb phrase made up of two or more words that function as a single verb.

Type of Compound Verb	Example
Hyphenated	baby-sit
Non-hyphenated	backflip
Phrasal	give up
Auxiliary (helping)	is running

Directions: Underline the compound verb in each sentence. Then, write in the blank what type of compound verb it is.

1. The teacher broke up a fight between two girls on the first day of school.

Type of compound verb: _____

2. It had taken about one hour until the girls apologized for their actions.

Type of compound verb: _____

3. The girls underestimated the punishments they would receive.

Type of compound verb: _____

4. The counselors and parents checked-in on the girls after a week.

Type of compound verb: _____

5. the girls' parents took away their phone privileges for three days.

Type of compound verb: _____

Directions: Write 5 examples of compound verbs in each category.

Type of Compound Verb	Examples
Hyphenated
Non-hyphenated
Phrasal
Auxiliary (helping)

Directions: Write V if the word is a compound verb. Write A if the word is a compound adjective.

1. Well-known _____

7. High-pitched _____

2. Open-minded _____

8. Give in _____

3. Take away _____

9. Heartbroken _____

4. Might agree _____

10. Speed-date _____

5. Highlight _____

11. Ice cold _____

6. Cold-hearted _____

12. Kick-start _____