

Intensive and Reflexive Pronouns

Both intensive and reflexive pronouns end in ~self or ~selves.

- Intensive pronouns are used to add emphasis to the noun or pronoun already mentioned. Even when you take out the intensive pronoun, the sentence should function.
- Reflexive pronouns are used when the subject and object of the sentence are the same.

Directions: Write I in the blank space if the underlined word is an intensive pronoun. Write R in the blank space if the underlined word is a reflexive pronoun.

1. The private chef himself prepared a meal for 50 guests. 1. I
2. The cat groomed itself every five minutes. 2. R
3. They rigorously prepared themselves for the regionals. 3. R
4. The artist herself signed the million dollar artwork. 4. I
5. Because all of her teammates left early, she herself presented alone. 5. I
6. We ourselves painted the mansion white. 6. I
7. I told myself to be brave and honest. 7. R
8. Without any help, I myself completed the research proposal. 8. I

Directions: Write a sentence using an intensive pronoun, and write another sentence that uses a reflexive pronoun.

9. Intensive pronoun:

Answers may vary

---

---

10. Reflexive pronoun:

---

---