

Possessive Pronouns

Possessive pronouns show ownership, and stand on their own in place of nouns.

Subject pronoun

Possessive pronoun

I	→	Mine
You		Yours
We		Ours
They		Theirs
She		Hers
He		His

Directions: Fill in the blank with the possessive pronoun that fits the sentence.

1. We bought the property last year. It is ours.
2. I remember Jay leaving this pen here. This is his.
3. Her little sister drew this picture. It is hers.
4. The cat over there belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Carter. That is theirs.
5. "Excuse me, sir. You dropped this dollar. It should be yours," I said to the man.
6. This journal is hers. It has the name, "Katie" written inside the cover.
7. "Please don't touch the figurines. Those are mine." I firmly told my little cousins.
8. My brother built this chair. It is his.