

Possessive Pronouns

Possessive pronouns show ownership, and stand on their own in place of nouns.

Subject pronoun

Possessive pronoun

I

Mine

You

Yours

We

Ours

They

Theirs

She

Hers

He

His

Directions: Fill in the blank with the possessive pronoun that fits the sentence.

1. We bought the property last year. It is _____.
2. I remember Jay leaving this pen here. This is _____.
3. Her little sister drew this picture. It is _____.
4. The cat over there belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Carter. That is _____.
5. "Excuse me, sir. You dropped this dollar. It should be _____," I said to the man.
6. This journal is _____. It has the name, "Katie" written inside the cover.
7. "Please don't touch the figurines. Those are _____. I firmly told my little cousins.
8. My brother built this chair. It is _____.