

Prepositional phrase

A prepositional phrase begins with a preposition and ends with a noun, pronoun, or a noun phrase (object of the preposition). The prepositional phrase can act as an adjectival phrase or an adverbial phrase.

Directions: Underline the prepositional phrase.

1. The nail clipper was under the bed.
2. David used to have a crush on a girl with the long hair.
3. Mrs. Kelly likes to jog early in the morning.
4. Andy looked all around the backyard for clues.
5. The teenager worked at a cafe.
6. Remember to empty out the bucket behind the garage.
7. The baby had an accident inside the car.
8. The angry student was causing a scene in the library.
9. The construction project will have to complete by next year.
10. The birthday boy canceled the party because of the flu season.

Directions: Circle the preposition and underline the object of that preposition.

11. Jimmy found a bee colony in the trash bin.
12. It's not always pleasant to travel with a friend.
13. Without hesitation, the barber started cutting my hair.
14. The planet was newly discovered among the stars.
15. Corey did not wish to have a party at the park.
16. There's a lot of chaos in the city.
17. The cabin beside the river flooded last season.

