

Transitive and Intransitive Verbs

A transitive verb is a verb that is done to a direct object, someone or something.

Ex) I kicked the ball. (The ball is the direct object)

An intransitive verb does not need a direct object.

Ex) I slept. (No direct object is needed)

Directions: If the sentence needs a direct object, use the ^ to add a direct object. If the verb is intransitive, leave as is. The first one is done for you. Answers may vary.
