

Countable Nouns and Uncountable Nouns

Directions: Write if the statement is true or false in the blank provided below.

1. Countable nouns are things we can count. _____
2. Countable nouns are always plural. _____
3. There is more than one way to write uncountable nouns. _____
4. Uncountable nouns are the same as collective nouns. _____
5. It is correct to use 'a' or 'an' before uncountable nouns. _____

Directions: Rewrite the sentences below by adding necessary words. The first one is done for you.

6. My father stocked up on three milk in the fridge for a milkshake party.

My father stocked up on three milk cartons in the fridge for a milkshake party.

7. The renown composer criticized many modern music.

8. There's a few butter remaining after baking a three tier cake.

9. Amy accidently poured six flour instead of three.

10. "Would you like to have a tea?" Jimmy asked the guest.

11. He was surprised to see the extra charge on the five waters he took from the hotel.

12. The nun has a full head with a million hair.

13. Search engines allow the public to gain many information for free.

14. At a Michelin restaurant, even one sand inside a clam can be damaging to their reputation.

15. As a cheese connoisseur, Amy enjoys and tries many cheeses.

Directions: Write in the blank space the correct adjective. The first one is done for you. You may use: a, an, some, any, no, much, many, numbers, a lot of.

16. I have a lot of homework that is due tomorrow.

17. Help yourself to _____ grapes.

18. Do you see _____ stars in the sky?

19. How _____ water is needed for the project?

20. There are _____ bones in the human body.

21. I barely have _____ time to finish the training.

22. My brother does not have a liking to _____ fruit.

23. Count _____ minutes before take off.

24. They invaded the area after discovering _____ gold beneath the soil.

25. South Korea receives _____ rain during the monsoon season.

26. The millionaires have _____ money in their bank accounts.

